

Privacy Statement

Your privacy is of paramount concern to us.

Specifically, your personal details will not be given to anyone except with your permission. The following discloses our information gathering and dissemination practices for this website.

Your name, address, and telephone number are confidential. We will maintain this information in our secure database. We may use it to facilitate your user experience with our website, as well as, contacting you if necessary. Your e-mail address will also be stored in our secure database, and we will use this address to contact you with announcements and information regarding events.

We will not sell or provide your contact information to any other organisation who may be interested in making unsolicited contacts. Lifes A Ball sends email newsletters to members and periodically sends emails about new services, improvements, promotional events.

Our members can opt-out of receiving communications from us by unsubscribing from our mailing list. This can be done by clicking on the newsletter button and unsubscribing.

If you have any questions about this privacy statement, the practices of this site, or your dealings with this Website, please contact mez@lifesaball.com.au
